

NEWSLETTER JUNE 2012

Dear friends and relations of the gallery,

We are pleased to inform you again of our latest activities and the presentations of our artists at home and abroad.

RAM

We are happy that our new website met with such favourable response and that the number of visitors is still increasing as is the number of registrations for our email-newsletter. We greatly appreciate this.

ramfoundation

This year we have started to explore and develop new activities with ramfoundation. That is why time has now come to also adjust and update the site of ramfoundation. We will keep you informed of our results.

We would like to invite you to the following exhibition:

On 30 June next the opening of the new 'Kunstcentrum Korenbeurs' in Schiedam will be celebrated. Berry Koedam has been invited to curate a show with three other curators. RAM artists will show their work and new editions in an exciting joint exhibition. Details may be found on our site.

RAM and ramfoundation news

We are working on various external presentations:

-Together with ramfoundation an exhibition will be organised from 15 August till 15 September at foundation 'Les Amis Breton-Roche' Salernes, France. For the first time the photo engravings of Per Abramsen will be on show. At around the same time, from 17 August till 26 August RAM will organize a small group show in Salerne called "Différentes Dimensions III", a combination of RAM artists and selected French artists. Further details may be found on our site.

We have regularly circulated emails with news. In case you have not seen those, please consult our website. At our 'news' entry you may find the latest information and at 'site steps' you may find an overview of the exhibitions of our artists. <http://ram-art.nl/sitesteps.php>

Important

From the point of view of sustainability, but also because we would like to keep you updated on our latest news adequately, we invite you to sign up for our digital newsletter (if you did not do so yet) at www.ram-art.nl/newsletter so that we can send you our newsletter by mail.

Also if you prefer to receive the newsletter by post, you may want to visit our site for details.
